

SETA HAGOPIAN Iraq:

On a honeymoon in Slunchev Bryag.

With a young bride it is appropriate to strike a conversation about love.

"Love is beautiful," the singer commented with a smile, "but it is even more beautiful combined with a visit to the Golden Orpheus Festival. We made the first rehearsal in the park, quite an improvised one, with a bottle of champagne. The startled holidaymakers who passed by hardly realized that we were participants in the Festival."

"Do you believe in chance?"

"There is no chance without hard work in my profession. But it is a real treat to be on the Bulgarian Black Sea coast and have such a fine time, as well as being given the chance to show our achievements in the field of pop songs."
